

Visions OF BOYHOOD

SCOTCH COLLEGE IN PICTURES

This handsome coffee table book comprises the 300 best photos in the school archives, with an accompanying text of often illuminating material.

The photographs range from 1851 in East Melbourne through to the present day. Many are long forgotten and previously unpublished.

Each photograph has an aesthetic quality and displays an aspect of the history of the school.

The authors, Stuart Gerstman ('66) and Jim Mitchell ('64), believe that a reader could open the book at any page and find a picture that is a pleasure to see.
