

Consignment Conditions:

1. The Scotch Senior School Swap Shop accepts the following items for consignment provided they are in good condition, clean, pressed and not requiring any mending, buttons or hooks.

Current:

- Red Candy Coats, dry-cleaned with the special pocket removed. Please pin the original pocket onto the coat if it is available;
- Shell Jackets;
- Other Sports Uniforms.

All other items are considered a donation.

2. The Senior School Swap Shop will consider items consigned in an unsatisfactory condition (unclean or requiring mending) as donations.
3. Any uniform items, which become obsolete, will be removed from consignment and donated to Scotch community projects overseas where possible. Please note, recent obsolete items include: All old sports uniforms, old-style slickers, blue year 12 jumpers that have a year embroidered on them, and grey suit coats.
4. Items not sold within two years will be deemed a donation.
5. For items sold on consignment, the Senior School Swap Shop credits two thirds of the sale proceeds back to your school account.
6. For families who have left the school, a cheque for two thirds of the sale proceeds will be sent out once a year.
7. Items with accumulated sales of $10 or less will be considered a donation.

I understand and accept these conditions:
