

Teacher – Trumpet (fixed term contract)

One of Australia's leading independent schools for boys, Scotch College is renowned for its innovation in teaching and learning and its commitment to offering a broad education to develop each boy to his full potential.

We are seeking to appoint a suitably qualified and experienced Trumpet teacher to join our dynamic Music Department for Term 1, 2025.

This full-time contract position provides an opportunity for a creative and highly talented trumpet teacher to teach trumpet lessons to boys at all levels, along with small instrumental classes to Junior and Year 7 groups. Opportunities to direct ensembles and sectional rehearsals may also be available to the right candidate. Recent graduates are welcome to apply. Part time working options will also be considered.

The successful applicant will have:

- Values of excellence, integrity, collaboration and compassion
- Outstanding communication and relationship skills
- Mastery of subject knowledge
- Ability to relate to children and young people
- Well-developed organisational and time management skills
- Relevant tertiary qualifications and experience
- Relevant qualifications and/or training in child safety and wellbeing

Some of the many benefits of working at Scotch College are:

- Extensive resources and facilities
- Opportunities for ongoing professional and personal development
- Staff wellness activities including gym and swimming pool access, yoga sessions and interest groups
- Access to extensive Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- Easy access via public transport and onsite parking

Applications should be sent to the Director of People and Culture, via email employment@scotch.vic.edu.au, and include a cover letter, CV and the full contact details of at least 3 professional referees

Further information can be obtained from Dr John Ferguson, Director of Music, Scotch College, on (03) 9810 4239.

Closing date: Friday 29 November 2024 (5pm)

**Scotch College reserves the right to interview and appoint prior to the closing date*

Support of the College's Christian heritage is an expectation of all staff.

Scotch College has been accredited as a Safe School by the Australian Childhood Foundation. All members of staff are required to provide referee, proof of identity and academic qualifications checks prior to employment.

