

Policy

Safeguarding Children and Young People

1. Policy Statement

Scotch College is committed to the protection of all children and young people from all forms of child abuse. The College values and respects every child and young person and is committed to providing them with a safe and inclusive environment when participating in the College's activities, services and programs.

2. Rationale

The College has a legal and moral duty to protect children and young people from foreseeable harm, and an important part of exercising that duty is strong policy. The purpose of this policy is to outline:

- the responsibilities, procedures and practices required of all staff within Scotch College to provide a safe school environment and protect the emotional, psychological and physical wellbeing of children and young people.
- the College's approach to meeting its safeguarding obligations as legislated in the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005 (Vic) incorporating the Child Safe Standards; Ministerial Order 1359 – Implementing the Child Safe Standards – Managing the Risk of Child Abuse in Schools and School Boarding Premises; and the Reportable Conduct Scheme.

The College is committed to advancing the safety and wellbeing of children and young people and complying with all requirements set out in this policy. This includes the provision of safeguards against mistreatment and the prompt reporting and effective risk management of actual, suspected or alleged child abuse.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all members of the College community, including:

- Staff members – this includes non-teaching staff and temporary, contract or casual staff
- College Council
- Volunteers, including Accommodation Providers for CRICOS students
- Third party contractors
- Teacher candidates or other tertiary students on placement at the College
- Visitors.

This policy applies to all forms of child abuse. Types and indicators of abuse are outlined in the College's Safeguarding Reporting Policy.

This policy applies across all school environments, as defined.

4. Definitions

Refer to Appendix 1.

5. Statement of Commitment

- The College is committed to the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people. This commitment remains the primary focus of the College's care and decision-making.
- The College has zero tolerance for child abuse.
- The College is committed to providing a child safe environment where children and young people are safe, and feel safe, and where their voices are heard with respect to decisions that affect their education and lives. Particular attention will be paid to the experiences of Aboriginal children and children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, as well as to the safety of children with a disability or vulnerability.

Policy

Safeguarding Children and Young People

- Every person involved with the College has a responsibility to understand the important and specific role they individually and collectively play to ensure that the wellbeing and safety of all students, children and young people is at the forefront of all they do and every decision they make.

6. Guiding Principles

The College's commitment to child safety and wellbeing is based on the following overarching principles that guide the development and regular review of the College's work systems, practices, policies and procedures to protect children and young people from abuse:

- All children have the right to be safe
- Any form of child abuse will not be tolerated and immediate action will be taken upon report of any suspected harmful or abusive behaviours
- The best interest of the child will be the primary consideration in all actions and decisions concerning the safety or wellbeing of a child or young person
- The views of the child or young person must be considered, and a child's privacy must be respected
- The College empowers children by informing them of their rights and responsibilities and supporting them to speak up about any matters of importance to them, including if something goes wrong. The College works to include the participation of children and young people in decision making regarding any matters affecting their welfare
- Clear expectations for appropriate behaviour with children and young people are established in the College's Child Safety and Wellbeing Code of Conduct and Staff Professional Boundaries policy
- Safeguarding children and young people is a shared responsibility, and is reliant on all individuals within the College community to keep children and young people safe in the College's care
- The safety of children is dependent upon the existence of an appropriate and compliant child safe culture including an environment where any form of racism will not be tolerated
- Child safety and wellbeing awareness is promoted and openly discussed within the College and the College community
- Through effective and accessible communication, families are encouraged to participate in decisions related to child safety and wellbeing which affect their child. Key policies are available on the College website
- Procedures are in place to lawfully and diligently screen all staff, volunteers and contractors who have direct contact with children
- Child protection training is mandatory for all Council members, staff, contractors and volunteers
- Procedures for responding to alleged or suspected incidents of child abuse are simple and accessible for all members of the College community
- Children have the right to a culturally safe school environment in which their diverse and unique identities are respected and valued
- The College pays particular attention to children who have any kind of disability or vulnerability, who are from culturally or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children who are unable to live at home, overseas students and lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and gender diverse, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) students
- The College's Safeguarding program is regularly reviewed and improved upon.

Policy

Safeguarding Children and Young People

7. Implementation of this policy and the Child Safe Standards

Effective implementation of this policy is enabled by the championing and modelling of the College's child safety and wellbeing culture across all levels of the College. All staff are required to acknowledge, in writing, their commitment and adherence to this policy. It is the responsibility of all at the College, including the College Council, the College Executive, staff, volunteers and contractors to:

- protect children and young people from all forms of child abuse
- be alert to incidents of child abuse occurring outside the scope of the College's operations and services that may have an impact on the children and young people to whom we provide a service
- create and maintain a child safe culture that is understood, endorsed and put into action by all the individuals who work for, volunteer, support or access the College's activities, programs and services.

Staff position descriptions clearly state relevant responsibilities and safeguarding requirements. A summary of responsibilities is outlined at Appendix 2.

Appendix 2 further outlines the specific actions the College takes to operationalise this policy, enabling compliance both with the policy and the 11 Child Safe Standards.

8. Reporting Child Abuse or Child Protection concerns

Refer to the College's Safeguarding Reporting Policy, publicly available on the College's website.

9. Safeguarding governance

The College's governance structure includes the College Executive, the Child Protection Officer who is responsible for managing the Safeguarding Program, the Dean of Boarding and a Child Protection Committee. The College Council, especially through its Risk Committee, provides governance oversight of safeguarding. Further detail on specific governance responsibilities, including policy management, risk management and review of the child safety and wellbeing program and practices, is outlined against the specific Child Safe Standards in Appendix 2.

10. Records and documentation

Records relating to safeguarding are maintained and retained in accordance with the College's Records Management Policy.

11. Review and Monitoring

This policy must be reviewed at least once every two years or following any significant incident, audit or legislative changes.

~~The Australian Childhood Foundation undertakes audit procedures at 3 yearly intervals including assessment of this policy and its operation.~~
